

GURU NANAK COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND RESEARCH

CELBATES NATIONAL LIBRARIAN DAY

National Librarian Day was celebrated in GNCER on 12th August 2025 on the occasion of birth anniversary of Dr. S. R. Ranganathan (Father of Library Science). The program was organized by Mrs. Bhavana Kadam (Librarian) under the permission of Dr. Aradhana Gokhale mam, I/C Principal of the college. The program was attended by students, faculty teachers from both B.Ed and D.El.Ed staff. The program started by sharing the insights of Dr. Ranganathan's life and his contributions to the field of library and information science. The importance of celebrating this day was discussed with the students by promoting reading habits among students and teachers and encouraging them to visit more libraries. Various activities were performed by the students of FY and SY batch of B.Ed. Students actively participated in the presentation and reading competition. This competition was organized by Ms. Bhavana Kadam, Librarian and was judged by Ms. Sangeetha Samadharman mam and Ms. Vidya Waghmare mam.

The following students were announced as winners:
