

GURU NANAK COLLEGE OF ELEMENTARY TEACHER EDUCATION

CELEBRATES NATIONAL LIBRARIAN DAY

National Librarian Day was celebrated in Guru Nanak College of Elementary Teacher Education on 12th August 2025 on the occasion of birth anniversary of Dr. S. R. Ranganathan (Father of Library Science). The program was organized under the permission of Ms. Sangeetha Samadharman mam (I/C Principal, D.El.Ed), Dr. Aradhana Gokhale mam (I/C Principal, B.Ed) and Mrs. Bhavana Kadam (Librarian). The program was attended by students and faculty members (both B.Ed and D.El.Ed). The program started by sharing the insights of Dr. Ranganathan's life and his contributions to the field of library and information science. The importance of this day was to promote reading habits among students and teachers and encouraging them to visit more libraries. Various activities were performed by the students of FY and SY batch of D.El.Ed. Students actively participated in the group presentation and reading competition. The session was further made interactive by having fruitful messages from Sangeetha mam and Kishor Sir sharing their perspectives on reading cultures and dynamic opportunities. This competition was judged by Dr. Jyoti Singh mam and Dr. Amrita Majumder mam.
